

How many challenges can your team complete?

How to play:

- Choose a different object for each challenge.
- Work together and discuss your selection as a team.
- Be prepared to explain your choices at the end.

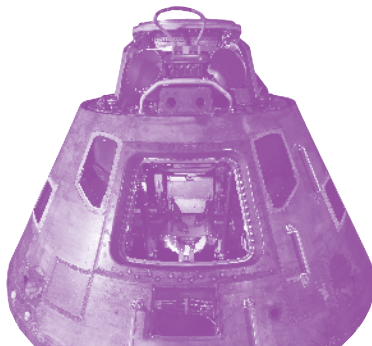

Location:

Finish time:

Meeting point:

Team name:

Names of team members:

Great Object Hunt

Age 11+ and age 14+:
Waves and communication

Recommended galleries:
Information Age, second floor
Making the Modern World, ground floor

Choose a different object for each challenge.

Something that sends a message between two places

Something that measures time

Something designed to be used in space

Something that reminds you of your home

Something used to broadcast radio or television

Something that contains wires

Something that has a memory

Something that can receive a signal

Something that can transmit a wireless message

Something that contains a lens

Something more than 150 years old

Something that can capture an image

Something designed to entertain

Something that has changed your life

Something used or made in the year you were born

